

Name: _____

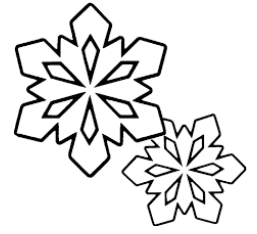

Grade: _____

Homeroom: _____

West End Elementary

Winter Break BINGO

Write about a trip that included something surprising. _____	Read a book next to your Christmas tree. _____	Read a book that has been made into a movie. _____	Write the recipe for the best thing you've eaten this week. _____	Write an essay describing which break is better: summer or winter. _____
Write a story about a random act of kindness. _____	Practice your math facts. _____	Spend 20 minutes on Study Island. _____	Write a thank you letter to your bus driver or your teacher. _____	Write a letter to Mr. Byars about why West End is the BEST! _____
Read a book with your pet. _____	Write about the best moment of your winter break. _____	FREE CHOICE!  Read any book you want.	Create two word problems and solve. _____	Read a book with a family member. _____
Write a letter to Dr. Drummond about how you would improve West End. _____	Read a book about Winter. _____	Write about how you used Math over the holidays. _____	Read a book next to a fireplace. _____	Teach your parent something you've learned this year. _____
Read a book in the dark with a flashlight. _____	Write about a time that was hard but ended up being worth it. _____	Read a non-fiction book about an animal. _____	Write a letter to Mrs. Boyd to tell her about the best book in the library _____	Cook with your family and take a picture. _____

To Participate in Winter Break Bingo:

You may complete activities in any row or column to make a BINGO. You may go up and down, side to side, or diagonally.

As you complete an activity or book, have your parent initial and date in the box.

When you've earned a BINGO, turn your sheet in to your homeroom teacher when you've returned to school.

All students who have earned a BINGO are eligible for a prize from Dr. Drummond.