Parent Outreach Workshops

All Are Welcome! Come to one or come to all!

August 24, 2017, Elm Street Elementary

Internet Safety – Throughout this presentation we will talk about ways you can protect your children online no matter how they access the internet (computers, cell phones, e-readers, game consoles). Technology changes all the time and kids are constantly finding the newest websites, apps and gadgets. It's up to you to teach them the basic rules of Internet safety so they can use it responsibly. Presented by Detective Randy Gore, Rome Police Department, and Sergeant Ojilvia Lom, Floyd County Police Department. Pizza at 5:45PM, program begins promptly at 6PM.

October 17, 2017, East Central Elementary

Child Safety – Wherever you go you are likely to observe children. Indicators of child abuse and neglect are around us but do you know what to look for? It is important for adults to recognize the signs to help protect our most vulnerable citizens- children and teenagers. How can you keep your child safe? This focuses on the safety of all children in our community. Presented by Kaitlyn Bailey, Harbor House (NW Georgia's Child Advocacy Center). Pizza at 5:45PM, program begins promptly at 6PM.

February 6, 2018, West End Elementary Activating Your Parent Super Powers – With Parent Super Powers you, too, can leap over problem situations in a single bound. Attend this workshop to learn more about communication, empathy and other tools to help children grow stronger. Presented by Tina Bartleson of The Exchange Club Family Resource Center. Pizza at 5:45PM, program begins promptly at 6PM.

April 5, 2018, Anna K. Davie Elementary

Anger Management – Participants will learn how to manage anger effectively; develop self-control over thoughts and actions; use "the anger meter" to monitor anger; and how to implement a response rather than a reaction. Presented by Steve Dennis of Motivation Unlimited and the Rome- Floyd County Commission on Children and Youth. Pizza at 5:45PM, program begins promptly at 6PM.

Children are welcome but child care is not provided. Each program will be approximately 1 hour long. Please contact Ginger Rowston with any questions at GRowston@rcs.rome.ga.us or 706-236-5050 x5034.
