

Rome Wolves team is honored at State Capitol

PREP FOOTBALL

 From staff reports

 02.17.17

The Georgia State Capitol went to the Wolves on Thursday as the Rome High School football team was recognized in both the House and the Senate for its state championship season.

Head coach John Reid was accompanied by a group of players on the floor of both chambers and honored by local legislators — Rep. Katie Dempsey, Rep. Eddie Lumsden, and Rep. Christian Coomer in the House, and Sen. Chuck Hufstetler in the Senate.

Both bodies adopted and presented resolutions congratulating the team on winning the 2016 GHSA Class 5A state championship and finishing with a 13-2 record.

The entire team attended each session and then posed on the main steps of the Capitol rotunda for a photo with Gov. Nathan Deal and local state legislators.

MORE ONLINE

Read the full house and senate resolutions online at RN-T.com.

Photo contributed by Sen. Chuck Hufstetler

The Rome High School football team poses with Georgia Gov. Nathan Deal (front row, center) as well as other local state legislators in the rotunda of the Georgia State Capitol after the team was presented with a resolution congratulating them on winning the 2016 Class 5A state championship.

Contributed photo by Georgia State Senate Press Office

Rome state Sen. Chuck Hufstetler (front row, from left) stands with Rome High football players Malik Davis and Jaylen Griffin, Rome High head football coach John Reid, Rome High football players Nemo Reddish (second row, from left) and Zach Kadum, and Georgia Lt. Gov. Casey Cagle after welcoming them to the floor of the Georgia State Senate on Thursday in Atlanta.

